

Larry Stevenson MPA

“Larry Stevenson has been helping people make more money and live better lives since 1978. Examples include businesses that

- Expanded from 1 struggling business to 4 successful businesses in 6 years
- Tripled earnings within 6 months and expanded into 3 new market niches in 2 years
- Increased productivity by 87% in 4 months and 230% in 2 years

Larry has presented to more than 1,800 audiences in 26 countries. He is the author of 3 books, and recently completed his fourth book Don't Get Eaten by the Bear and Other Skills to Land the Job You Love. He co-produced Job Search: The Inside Track, a video/workbooks series, that sold more than 500,000 copies in 3 languages. He was technical consultant and featured panelist on the Emmy-nominated PBS series Living Essentials.

Larry served as the international president of the Association for Job Search Training. He is a member of the Marketing Success Community, BYU Management Society, Corporate Alliance, National Speakers Association, local United Way Board and many other beneficial associations.

He and his wife Carol live in the greater Salt Lake area of Utah. They love watching the families of their six children flourish.”
