

Samuel Baugh MBA

Samuel Baugh MBA | Business Consultant & Mentor

Sam has been responsible for building programs that have been used worldwide in a multinational NGO. He created a professional development series that focused on topics that ranges from using humor in the workplace to build morale and engagement in your organization, to growing an abundance mentality. He has been an Adjunct Professor at Utah Valley University, and guest lecturer at UVU, BYU, Broadview University, and Mountainland Applied Technology College.

Sam has owned 3 different businesses and is working on his 4th. He uses his knowledge to help business owners find way to promote their personal businesses and build their team.

Accomplishments:

Increased attendance in personalized instructional courses by 180% in a 3 month period

Increased client base by 600% in a 3 month period

Increased Net profit by 150% in 6 weeks.

Awarded Chamber Champion award for 2014

Share this: